

ORDER FORM

The University Press of Kansas publishes scholarly books that advance knowledge and regional books that contribute to the understanding of Kansas, the Great Plains, and the Midwest. Founded in 1946, it represents the six state universities: Emporia State University, Fort Hays State University, Kansas State University, Pittsburg State University, The University of Kansas, and Wichita State University.

The press is a member of the Association of American University Presses.

The press participates in the Cataloging in Publication Program of the Library of Congress. Most University Press of Kansas books are printed on acid-free paper, and binding materials are chosen for strength and durability.

Direct orders from individuals must be prepaid in U.S. funds or charged through VISA, MasterCard, or American Express and must include postage and handling (see order form).

The University Press of Kansas strives to use environmentally responsible suppliers and materials to the fullest extent possible in the publishing of its books. Such materials include vegetable-based, low-VOC inks and acid-free papers that are recycled, totally chlorine-free, or partly composed of non-wood fibers. The University Press of Kansas is a member of Green Press Initiative.
